Directions

Kuala Lumpur to Tanjung Leman Jetty

You have two choices driving from Kuala Lumpur to Tanjung Leman Jetty - A or B.

Choice A

Take the North - South Highway from KL until you get to the Kulai turn off (almost as far down as Johor Bahru). This will put you on Route 94 heading towards Kota Tinggi and Mersing.

At the end of this road you will reach a T junction, turn left (North) onto Route 3 still heading to Kota Tinggi and Mersing. Continue to follow signs for Mersing.

You will hardly notice when you pass by Kota Tinggi as the road bypasses out of the town. However there will be a traffic light whereby a left turn takes you to Kota Tinggi town and a right turn to Desaru. Keep going straight towards Mersing. After about 40 minutes drive from the traffic light / Kota Tinggi junction you will notice signs for Tanjung Leman, Pulau Sibul Island.

Take a right hand turn into the check point for Tenggorah plantation (palm oil plantation). On the corner of the turn off you should see a taxi stand for long distance cabs (Blue cabs). Pass through a police check-point onto the plantation Road.

Tanjung Leman Jetty is about 28km away from this point, when you are about 13km away from the jetty you will see a sign for Pulau Sibul Island Tanjung Leman Jetty, take a left turn. Continue on till the end of the road. At the end of the road turn right into the entrance of Tanjung Leman Jetty car park.

OR

Choice B

Take the north - south highway from KL and exit at Keluang heading east towards Mersing. This road is however a single lane winding road and might take a longer time than anticipated. Once you have reached the east coast (south of Mersing) you should turn right (south) heading towards Kota Tinggi and Johor Bahru

After about 30 minutes drive you will reach the Tanjung Leman turnoff (look out for signs), turn left into the Tenggorah Plantation (palm oil plantation). On the corner of the turn-off you should see a taxi stand for long distance cabs (blue cabs). Pass through a police check-point onto the Plantation road.
